

ICECAST® MSS TOOL KIT ANATOMY

Icecast Anatomy represents a further development of the pressure-casting concept. Contour Cell™ shaping-chambers positioned over soft tissue areas can be inflated independently to achieve displacement of the tissue creating a more anatomically correct socket shape. The increased control over the socket shape enhances user comfort, stability and rotation control. As the residual limb is "loaded" by the pressure-casting instrument during casting, it is possible to eliminate the need for modification of the resultant socket shape.

Part#	Description
M-500300	Icecast MSS Tool Kit Anatomy

Includes:

- Icecast Anatomy Bladder
- Icecast Pump
- Resin Injection Tool
- Distal Attachment Tool
- Taping Ring
- Icecast Case (with attachments for trolley)

ICECAST® MSS TOOL KIT COMPACT

The Icecast Compact provides a simple and effective way of guaranteeing that a TSB socket fit is achieved for use with a 3mm profile Iceross silicone locking liner. The system provides a simpler and more durable socket fabrication tool than the Icecast Anatomy as it does not contain the Contour Cell technology. Socket fabrication is therefore simpler and modifications of the anatomical shape are minimal, without affecting user comfort.

ICECAST® MSS MATERIALS

The Pressure Pads are designed to reduce peak pressures in sockets due to prominent bony areas. Made from a non-compressible silicone that optimizes pressure redistribution, pressure pads can improve the comfort of laminated, thermoformed or directly manufactured sockets such as the Modular Socket System. The pads feature a self-adhesive backing to enable easy application.
